

Directors & Officers Liability

COVERAGE OVERVIEW

D&O Coverage protects Directors/Officers/Managers/Executives of the company for alleged breach of fiduciary duty, or for errors/omissions/negligence in their capacities as leaders of the organization, including exposures to:

- Shareholders
- Competitors
- Customers
- Vendors
- Employees
- Regulators

PRIVATE COMPANY D&O CLAIMS EXAMPLES:

- (1) Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Fair Dealing allegations against managers in awarding contract work
- (2) Tortious Interference allegations against Directors in recruiting a new partner from a competitor
- (3) Breach of Loyalty allegations against an Officer in developing new/parallel business opportunities outside of the company
- (4) Breach of Loyalty allegations against individual Directors for failure to oversee operations (e.g. lack of enterprise risk management on data security and privacy)